2018 VICTORIAN SENIOR OF THE YEAR AWARDS

Message from the Premier and the Minister for Housing, Disability and Ageing

All over Victoria seniors are making our state a kinder, better, more generous place to live.

The Victorian Senior of the Year Awards recognise these outstanding contributions.

You can too.

If you know a person or organisation whose achievements deserve wider attention, nominate them for a Senior of the Year Award.

Nominations for this year's awards are now open.

Each nominee receives a certificate acknowledging their contribution, and award recipients will be honoured at Government House at the 36th Victorian Seniors Festival this October.

To nominate someone, or for more information, visit www.seniorsonline.vic.gov.au

Help us celebrate the organisations and senior Victorians who make our great state even better.

Daniel Andrews MP
Premier of Victoria

Martin Foley MP
Minister for Housing,
Disability and Ageing

2017 award recipients

In 2017 we received many nominations representing our diverse society here in Victoria. People who were recognised included a cancer awareness ambassador, a musician, a Vietnam veteran, a day club coordinator, a CWA volunteer, a refugees support group founder, a keeping fit mentor, a WWII prisoner of war, a Justice of the Peace, an age-friendly activist, a seniors golf legend, a Community Shed coordinator, and a Polish veteran and social club coordinator.

The organisation awarded the Age-Friendly award was Travellers Aid Australia for promoting age-friendly communities through its free, volunteer provided services that support people to navigate the public transport system and assist with other needs including attendance at medical and legal appointments, social activities, and education and training programs.

So if you know an older Victorian whom you think should be acknowledged – for example an Elder in your community, a member of a club you attend, a volunteer in your organisation – nominate them for consideration in this year's awards. Additionally, if your organisation works with an age-friendly approach to programs and services you can nominate for the Age-Friendly Award.

Eligibility and selection criteria

Senior of the Year Awards nominees must be an Australian citizen, a resident of Victoria and aged 60 years or over. Nominees will be assessed on their volunteer contribution and achievements since reaching the age of 60.

Nominees are assessed on the following selection criteria:

1. how they make a difference to community wellbeing through volunteering
2. their good standing in the community
3. how their positive attitude to ageing inspires others.

The Age-Friendly Victoria Award is open to any organisation or business working with an age-friendly approach to programs and services in Victoria. Nominees must demonstrate achievements in each of the following selection criterion:

1. engagement with older people – older people participate in planning and implementing the age-friendly activity or environment
2. age-friendliness – the activity or environment enables older people to achieve good health and wellbeing, social and economic participation, or personal security
3. attitudinal shift – the activity or environment promotes positive attitudes towards ageing and older people in the community
4. sustainability – the activity or environment is embedded within the community or organisation/business to ensure its ongoing viability.
